

Dennis Barnhill

March 5, 1969 - October 4, 2018

Dennis Bruce Barnhill was born in Jackson Tennessee to Bruce and Judy Barnhill on March 5, 1969. He was 49 years old when he passed away peacefully in his home with his loving family by his side on October 4, 2018. He fought a hard battle with pancreatic and liver cancer after being diagnosed a very short three months earlier. Along with his parents, he is survived by his beautiful daughters, Allie and Christian Barnhill; one sister Debra Lindkvist; and a very special niece, Nikkole Lindkvist. His wife, Frieda Barnhill; step-daughters Madison Beaird and Morgan Derry; step-grandchildren, Wakelan Derry and Eden Beaird -to which he was affectionately referred to as "Nennis"; a very special uncle Jerry Griggs, and a special person he considered a brother, Billy Pulley.

Dennis worked in sales for ARC Document Solutions in Memphis Tennessee. While he has only been employed with this company for two short years, he was considered the company's top salesperson, earning the number one sales position world-wide during the last month in which he worked. He was involved in and loved his car club and had an unmistakable love for the Ford Mustang. He would mention privately that it wasn't always about the cars, but it was the great people that he had met within the club along the way, that he loved most.

Dennis graduated from North Side High School in Jackson Tennessee where he made, and has kept up with, some of his lifelong friends. He grew up loving sports (which included great memories of he and his father) such as baseball, football and then enjoyed bike racing where he also would compete on a national level.

Dennis is described by those who loved him as a fun, loving, caring Christian person who loved the Lord first and being the family man that he was, he enjoyed special times spent with his family. Dennis took every opportunity that came along to help those in need while also witnessing to them -sharing the love of Jesus and what his faith meant to him.

I was just looking through some on the text messages where we were discussing marriage and remember a lot of the after hour conversations about marriage, God, life and many other things. He was truly a great guy and will be missed. My condolences to the Barnhill family.*

I was a dear friend of Dennis. I was completely unaware of his death. I am in shock to say the least. He was a wonderful Christian man who loved to talk about Jesus. I'll never forget him. I wish I had known. I would have been at his service.

We went to High School together. I didn't know him very well but he was a nice guy. We stayed in touch now and then over the past few years. It was a shock to learn of his health issues. RIP Dennis.

“Dennis Barnhill is a man of unwavering faith in Our Lord. He is a man who not only preaches the word of God, but believes the lessons in his heart and soul. He is a true friend to those he comes into contact with. He doesn't have to physically meet you in order to call you a friend. He loves with no judgement, nor expectations in return. Dennis is a person like no other. He is one of the most uniquely complicated simple human beings I know. In a day and age of empty promises, Dennis is a man of his word. Dennis has honor and integrity. I have had the honor of calling him my friend for 28 short years. He is my husband's best friend and a true Uncle, in every sense of the word, to my children. He has made this world a better place by loving Jesus Christ and living his life in joy and service. Although his physical life has ceased, his heart and soul still have the ability to love and teach us how to live a life that is happy and fulfilling. The many memories we have with Dennis and of Dennis will continue to guide our actions in ways that will honor the man he is and we can continue to carry on the life of a man that always seemed to find the good in people and situations. I am purposely using the present tense because I believe that Dennis Barnhill will always be of this world. He has left an everlasting mark on all the people he has had the opportunity to encounter and as such, we all have a small piece of Dennis with us. We can honor the memory of our friend by trying to connect with people and by trying to be an extension of values and beliefs Dennis believes in. Dennis is resting peacefully with Our Heavenly Father, and will continue to spread the teachings of faith and be a beacon of hope and love for eternity. We are all better people for having Dennis in our lives. Let us love one another and keep his life and memories alive.
